All are welcome!

Community Service Day - Packing Boxes for Poor in Nicaragua

When: TRUCK PACKING

 Sat., Nov. 12th... 9 AM– 4 PM

Sorting & Packing boxes...

Every Saturday from Oct. 8 to Nov. 12
10 AM – 1 PM

Where: 394 Main St., Bridgeport

Sponsor: Maureen Shanley

All CT Quest funded humanitarian aid programs are provided freely to needy Nicaraguans regardless of religion, creed, race or tribal origin. While there are five programs that support Nicaraguan families' independence, CTRPCV has been asked to help with the Humanitarian Cargo Aid program. This vital program helps Nicaraguan families overcome generational poverty and it is the backbone of CT Quest's work in Nicaragua since the donated cargo shipments do triple service. Cargo shipments provide quality goods to the poor, create funding for community programs and build relationships between you and the people of Nicaragua.

CTRPCV will meet at Bill's warehouse and work from 9 AM until 4 PM 11/12/16. If you are available to help pack boxes any Saturday before 11/12/16, we are at the warehouse from 10 AM- 1 PM. Bill will have all the packing supplies, but you might want to bring your favorite tape dispenser (gun) like I do.

I have been working with CT Quest for Peace for years and I have traveled down to Nicaragua to see the various projects and to work with Donna Tabor (RPCV/ Nica.) in Granada, Nicaragua. I have seen firsthand that these projects are working and that every effort we make here is greatly appreciated by the recipients. On a personal level, I would be pleased if you could come and assist us in our efforts to send humanitarian aid to the needy in Nicaragua. Please contact me at 203-775-9222 or maureenshanley@hotmail.com to let me know if you are able to help with this project.

For information about CT Quest for Peace go to <http://www.ctquestforpeace.org>. If you want to bring donations, contact Maureen Shanley at (maureenshanley@hotmail.com) to see what they need. CT Quest is always looking for SUMMER clothing, school supplies for children, books in Spanish, wheel chairs, kitchen utensils, and bed linens. We also send books in English to Nicaraguan PCVs who are teaching English as a second language. We send DVDs, CDs and VCR tapes as long as we have a VCR player to send with the tapes.

RPCVs go to Washington

By Bryan Garcia

A contingent of CT Returned Peace Corps volunteers headed to Washington last month for Peace Corps Connect.

Carrie Hesler-Radelet, Peace Corps director, said that if safety can be ensured, the Peace Corps is looking to place more volunteers in urban centers.

She said improvements to the application process have more than doubled the number of applicants. The Peace Corps now has 25,000 applicants, and is accepting 1 in 6. Host country demand for PCVs outpaces supply.

Thirty six percent of applicants now represent ethnic minorities, compared with 22 percent in 2010, she said. And it now takes an average of just 50 days to become a PCV, down from 200 days.

She noted that about 90 percent of PCVs have access to internet in their communities.

Former Ambassador and General Karl Eikenberry argued that Peace Corps volunteers are the best “bang for the buck” diplomats operating throughout the world. He highlighted the important role we play in national security and public service.

Peace Corps Connect is the annual conference of the National Peace Corps Association. Attendees went to Capitol Hill to advocate for the Peace Corps, and receive updates from agency leaders.

The Connecticut group visited the office of Senator Chris Murphy (D-CT). Murphy, who serves on the Foreign Relations Committee, has been a strong supporter of the Peace Corps.
