CT Food Bank ...

CTRPCV will sort food on April 21

The Connecticut Food Bank annually distributes more than 15 million pounds of food to six of the state's eight counties. Donations come from the food industry, through community member and corporate contributions, and via government subsidies.

At the CT Food Bank donations are organized and sorted by products before they are distributed at the warehouses. Member programs send representatives to the warehouses to shop for food that is then distributed to those who need it most at local food pantries, soup kitchens and emergency shelters.

CTRPCV volunteers will inspect, sort and pack non-perishable food at CT Food Bank in East Haven on Saturday, April 21st from 9 AM to noon. Families welcome... it's a great service project for kids. If you are interested: call Lois Fucci at 203-239-0169.

Hole in The Wall Gang Camp

Volunteer Project... Saturday, June 30th in Ashford, CT

On June 30th, CTRPCV's will participate in a volunteer day at The Hole In The Wall Gang Camp in Ashford, CT. Since 1988 the camp has served as a non-profit residential summer camp and year round center for children coping with cancer and other life-threatening diseases. All of the camp's services are free of charge. This unique camp, created by Paul Newman and his friends, provides a sense of normalcy for children who may have missed out on aspects of their childhood. We will be changing bed linens (about 150 beds) for the campers who will arrive the next day. This is truly a rewarding project and well worth our time and efforts.

Please plan to participate and bring your family (children should be 15,16 or older). If you are able to volunteer call or email Lois Fucci, 203-239-0169, lafucci@comcast.net.

WHEN: June 30th, Saturday

WHERE: Ashford, CT

TIME: 9:30 AM -12:00 (noon)

I make use of these online texts in two of my international and cross-cultural education courses at Eastern CT State University. The Building Bridges guide is a good introductory text on culture and intercultural relations, with activities and exercises for middle and high school classrooms. The Culture Matters workbook is designed for Peace Corps volunteers and focuses on styles of communication, culture in the workplace, adjusting to a new culture, and social relationships. Both explore American culture and generalizations, diversity within our nation, and potential cultural misunderstandings for Americans living in other nations.

GrantStation membership

CTRPCV has a membership in GrantStation for one year. This enables us to search their data base to see if there are grants that we can apply for that would help us fund our CTRPCV Community Service Grant Fund. If anyone has some knowledge of how to apply for grants and would be interested in helping to search for grants, please contact Maureen Shanley at MaureenShanley@hotmail.com.

Invitation to the 50th Anniversary of Peace Corps in the Dominican Republic, February 7-10 of 2012

“Greetings

My name is Charlie and I am a Peace Corps Volunteer serving in the Dominican Republic. It is with great pleasure that I invite you to join current Peace Corps Volunteers, Returned Peace Corps Volunteers, staff and others for the 50th Anniversary of Peace Corps in the Dominican Republic.

The 50th Anniversary celebration in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic on February 7-10 of 2012 will provide you with the opportunity to reflect over your Peace Corps experience, reconnect with fellow RPCVs, and to learn about what projects are shaping the service of volunteers today. Come join us for this historic occasion where you can take part in panel discussions, an artisan fair, and one of the many excursions we have planned to reacquaint you with the sun soaked country you once called home.

Participate in the history that you helped create, and share what made your Peace Corps service memorable! For more information and to register please visit the 50th Anniversary website at <http://50th.fotdr.org/>

I look forward to seeing you in February!

Recommended places for unwinding

Introducing a new section for the CTRPCV e-newsletter where members share a special place for unwinding in the world. The location may be in Connecticut or anywhere away from home. Please send a short description (100 words) to the e-newsletter editor with the name of place, location, cost for the rental, amenities, local places of interest and restaurants, transportation, contact information, and other details.

February 2012:

Puerto Rico Vacation Home recommended by [Louise Cox \(Vania\) \[davlouc@cox.net\]](#):

The rental is in Mayaguez, the western part of PR.

Cost is:

1-4 people, 1 bedroom $550/week . Plus $70 cleaning fee

5-6 people, 2 bedrooms $650/week. Plus $75 cleaning fee

7-8 people, 3 bedrooms, $750/week. Plus $80 cleaning fee

We don't have specific addresses of places to eat. etc. We just explored the area (as a PCV does) and found many things. There are Walgreens around, K-mart, GPS and cell phones work fine. Mario and Mercedes are completely bi-lingual. The owners are very helpful. For more details and comments by those who have stayed there, please visit <http://www.vrbo.com/262214>.
